SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

Second & Fourth Sunday of the month at 1:15 PM. Parents are asked to come to the Baptismal Instruction the second Tuesday of each month at 7:00 PM in the Parish Conference Center located behind the church. Please call the Parish Center to register for the Baptismal Instruction.

We, the Parish family of Nativity of Our Lord, proclaim that by our Baptism we have received the message of Christmas the great love God has for all people and proclaim that love to all we meet, and so to make present the Kingdom of God on earth by service to others and by working for justice and peace.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate Father's Day. It is a special day to recognize our fathers for all the good they have done for us and the sacrifices they have made for us.

Sometimes we take the special people in our lives for granted. Special days like birthday's, holidays, Mother's Day and Father's Day are moments of grace for us, if we allow them to be. We are given the opportunity to reflect on how lucky and blessed we are to have such good and loving people in our lives.

Be sure on this Father's Day to recognize your fathers, living and deceased. Thank God for them and for all they have done to make your life better by their love and sacrifices. Recognize the good things you have learned by their example.

Today join me in honoring all the dads of our parish and all our dads everywhere. Pray with me that God will bless and reward them for being good fathers. May all fathers know the love and respect of all of us, their children.

Thanks, Dads! Happy Father's Day! May God be with you always and bless and reward you for your goodness, example, and love.

*Happy Father's Day Dad—with Love!
God bless us all!
Fr. Citino*

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ:

Participation in the Peter's Pence Collection gives us an opportunity be a witness of charity to our brothers and sisters around the world. Gifts to this annual collection help our Holy Father, Pope Francis, to support victims of war and natural disasters and others most in need of assistance.

The Peter's Pence Collection unites us in solidarity with the Holy Father and his works of charity toward those who are suffering around the world. Pope Francis reminds us that true power lies not in amassing possessions and resources for ourselves but in giving. "We must never forget that true power, at any level, is service, whose bright summit is upon the Cross. . . it means entering the logic of Jesus who kneels to wash the Apostles' feet," he said. Your contributions to the Peter's Pence Collection join with the power of Christ to give support to those in need.

Join Pope Francis and be a witness of charity throughout the world. This year the Peter's Pence Collection will be taken at all Masses on the weekend of June 27 and June 28, 2015.

Gratefully and with best wishes in Jesus Christ,

+Most Reverend Charles J. Chaput, O.F.M. Cap.
Archbishop of Philadelphia

Our Parish Family is asked to pray:

for those who have stopped attending Mass. May they hear the Holy Spirit & return to the Sacraments.

You may notice that there is a new donation receptacle in the vestibule of church. Each parish received, through the generosity of Maguire Hayden Partners, this donation box for the World Meeting of Families Philadelphia 2015. Archbishop Chaput is not requiring each parish to take up a collection for this event but has approved the placement of these boxes for the faithful to have an opportunity to donate if they so choose. If you wish, and this is completely your decision, to donate, please place your gift in the receptacle slot. We will be remitting to the archdiocese on a bi-weekly basis the contents of the donations received. Many thanks for your consideration.

Christians in Bethlehem have supported their families for many years by selling these beautiful works of art. Now they are facing many challenges due to the terrible situation in the Holy Land and the lack of pilgrims visiting. These hardships have caused families to flee in order to find the means to support their families. Your purchases of these wood carvings give Christians in Bethlehem the chance to survive and remain a presence in the Holy Land Please consider purchasing something for yourself or to give as a gift. Your generosity is most appreciated! Check and credit cards will be accepted!

Mercy in the City:

How to Feed the Hungry, Give Drink to the Thirsty, Visit the Imprisoned, and Keep Your Day Job

By Kerry Weber

You will laugh at some of her experiences but also be inspired to put your faith into practice in very concrete ways.

If you would like to order the book through the parish, please contact Ann Marie Gervino by Monday July 13th at the Parish Center 215-675-1925 or email: agervino@noolp.org. If you would like to purchase the book on your own, it is available through Loyola Press and Amazon.

Book Discussion Date: Tuesday, September 1, 2015 10a.m. and again at 7:00 p.m. Parish Conference Center.

PLEASE BE A PART OF OUR CHURCH FAMILY PHOTO ALBUM/DIRECTORY!

In celebration of the upcoming World Meeting of Families and the approaching 60th anniversary of Nativity Parish, we thought it would be nice to create a parish photo album/directory! We will be working with a company called My Church Family Album who will be at Nativity a week in the summer and again in the fall to photograph members of our parish. There is no cost to the Church and no sitting fee for families. Every household that signs up to be photographed will receive a free 8 x 10 portrait and a copy of the photo album. You will have the option of ordering additional prints for a fee if you choose to do so. The photographs will be ready before Christmas so you may consider ordering some for Christmas gifts.

My Church Family Album* will be here July 21-26 and again September 29-Oct. 4 to photograph our parishioners. Sign-ups for time slots will begin soon.

Quo Vadis Days

This is a very exciting opportunity for a great retreat/camp experience for your youth at an amazing price of only $20 . Last year over 100 young men participated in this unique experience.

There will be 2 sessions July 5-8 or July 9-12 On a national level, Quo Vadis has been the best way to encourage vocations to the priesthood for high school young men. It is a camp run by priests and seminarians at the Black Rock Retreat Center in Lancaster (www.blackrockretreat.com). This experience involves a ropes course, basketball, soccer, ultimate frisbee, fire pits, and more with great food to boot. The men will also hear dynamic talks about how to be a man of God and be given tools for discerning God's will. They will also have Mass, time before the Blessed Sacrament, and learn to pray the Liturgy of the Hours. Not only do these men grow closer to God, they also form a brotherhood with each other. Would you like to learn more about this opportunity? contact mompalo@aol.com.

World Meeting of Families

To prepare for the World Meeting of Families and Pope Francis's visit, Nativity ran a study group on the 10 Chapter book, Love is Our Mission: The Family Fully Alive. This is a beautifully written catechesis on family life and human sexuality.

Copies are available in the vestibule of Church for free. Summaries of the Chapters 1-7 have already appeared in the bulletin. Following is the summary for Chapter 8. Previous monthly reflections are online at PhillyEvang.org/wmof. To learn more about September's big event and to register to be a volunteer, go to: WorldMeeting2015.org. Check out the wonderful speakers and events for adults and children. Did you know? The World Meeting of Families Youth Congress is for young people ages 6-17 from Sept 22-25 at the PA Convention Center. Activities include: Making Pope Puppets, Bowling with the Bishops, Shooting Hoops with the Seminarians and a Teen Café!

Chapter 8: A Home for the Wounded Heart. Jesus set a high standard for chastity, asking his followers to live differently from the rest of the world. Jesus taught things about sexuality and marriage which we may find difficult to accept and live, both in ancient times and today. But Jesus asked us to live sacrificially for good reason. Jesus tells us the truth about how to love, and so if we respect marriage vows, practice self-control, and treat each other chastely, communion and freedom of spirit will dawn in our hearts and in our communities. Of course, we all stumble and sin, hurting ourselves and others in the process. Sin causes profound pain in family life. That is why Pope Francis once famously likened the Church to "a field hospital after battle." Pope Benedict called each parish a "family of families." In our ordinary parish life, each of us fulfills our mission when we bear one another's burdens and help each other heal the wounds. No one should be lonely or forgotten in a parish. The Church is a family of those who have encountered Jesus, who confess that he is Lord, who desire his grace to shape their lives, and so help each other respond to him. Jesus' way enables patience, forgiveness, and trust, so that we can convert and renew our hearts in ways that would otherwise seem impossible. Whatever controversies might arise in our culture, whatever others might do or fail to do, Jesus and his Sacraments are always with us, and love is always our mission.

Come to the World Meeting of Families Congress!
